DISCLAIMER

The Kougom team takes the health and safety of all campers seriously. We will have a first aid kit available on site and we have also informed the nearest emergency medical transport service in case of any emergencies for prompt responses.

All campers are required to provide their medical aid details, emergency contact information, and to disclose any medical conditions, allergies, medication, or dietary restrictions prior to attending the camp.

Please note that Kougom includes physical activities. Campers participate in all activities at their own discretion and accept personal responsibility for their physical wellbeing while taking part. Campers are encouraged to listen to their bodies and to immediately inform a leader or team member if they feel unwell, injured, or uncomfortable at any time.

By attending Kougom 2026, campers acknowledge and accept this responsibility and agree to communicate openly with the team regarding their health and safety.
